three children, that is, myself C. Elsie Hoover, whose husband's name is Jesse J. Hoover; William H. Fox, whose wife's name is Gertrude Fox; Amanda Madary, whose husband's name is Oliver Madary A sister, Harriet V. Castle, who died, intestate, after the death of William H. Blentlinger and left no surviving husband, children or descendants.

A sister, Susan C. Greenwalt, who died, intestate, in March, 1917, and left surviving her a husb-and, Samuel Greenwalt, but no child or descendants.

The said William H. Blentlinger also had a brother, Charles C. Blentlinger, who died a long time ago before the said William H. Blentlinger and left two children surviving him, namely; Charles L. Blentlinger and Nellie Blentlinger.

The said William H.Blentlinger was, at the time of his death, seized and possessed of a farm in Mount Pleasant District, which was sold during the administration of the estate, and also a double house on Water Street in Frederick City, Maryland, known as Nos. 119 and 121 Water Street and described in a deed from John Benjamin Ford to William H.Blentlinger, dated January 9,1905 and recorded in Liber No. 369, at folio 161, one of the Land Records of Frederick County, I look at "Exhibit B" to the Bill of Complaint and it describes the real estate mentioned in the Bill. The property cannot be divided without loss and injury and I think it would better be sold and the money divided. In my opimion, it ought to bring $1800.00 or $2,000.00.

In the administration of my Uncle William's estate the Final Account shown a balance of $6210.00 in cash and a life membership in the Frederick County Agricultural Society, appraised at $75.00, and $50.00 War Savings Stamps, appraised at $44.60. This, I am advised, was distributed to his widow, Nannie W. Blentlinger, for life, and has never been distributed to the remaindermen. I am advised that the bulk of this is in the Frederick County National Bank, $3361.00 $1,000.00 in the Central Trust Company; and a mortgage on real estate in the District of Columbia for $1500.00.

To the Geberal Interrogatory;

I think it would be to the best interest of all the parties to appoint Trustees to sell the real estate and divide the proceeds, and to collect and distribute the personal estate held by Mannie W.Blentlinger, the life tenant.
